Datu Molod IS: A Culture-Sensitive and Values Founded Academe

Lumatil, Maasim – The ambiance and amenity showed by Datu Molod Integrated School as venue of the 2nd Regular Management Committee (MANCOM) Meeting, held last July 11, 2013, is another authenticity an academic institution can offer to its visitors. The warm welcome, great foods and rich traditions are just few observations to constitute the justification of the above title of this article.

Upon entering the school campus, the students who were in their unique costumes of ethnicity affiliation opened the gates of participants' eyes as they greeted them with courtesy and excitement.

Ma'am Imelda T. Dujenas, the school head, proudly welcomed everybody to the meeting. The occasion was attended by Barangay Captain Bonie J. Sultan, PTA President Hadji Zacaria Adam, Mr. Apolo Novicio (Representative of the Municipal Mayor of Maasim), and Board Member Cornelio Martinez, Chairman of the Committee on Education in the Sangguniang Panlalawigan of Sarangani.

The preliminary program showcased students' talents on dancing and dramatizing the message of the songs, wherein Ms. Shirley M. Cardinal (EPS-1) and the School Head, jointly dance with them, eagerly.

The agenda of the meeting includes the updates of the Education Program Supervisors, Division Coordinators, Section Head/s, ASDS, and SDS; the results of the National Achievement Test for SY 2012-2013, and the awarding of Brigada Eskwela Implementers for SY 2013-2014. Moreover, the Department of Science and Technology, Region XII, Sarangani – General Santos Field Office, through their representative, informed their scholarship program and distributed the application forms to the respective heads for their pupils and students to avail.

Mr. Edmund D. Gulam, the new District Head of West Maasim, gave the acknowledgment part, expressing thanks to all who attended the meeting - SDS, ASDS, Education Program Supervisors, Division Coordinators, District Heads, Central School Principals, and Secondary School Heads.

While the MANCOM meeting was going-on, classes were continuous as per DepEd Order No. 9, S. 2005, reiterating the Engaged Time-On-Task measure of the Department.
